1. Gates Lloyd, [REDACTED], and I met with the Director to discuss the decorations for his office in the new building. He made some minor changes, the details of which H. S. will have to discuss with Mrs. Quellar of Harrison and Abramovitz. The Director approved of this decoration going into his two offices and General Cabell's office only. This means that everyone else, including secretaries to the Director and the Deputy Director, will have Class "A" furniture. He also approved of limiting the use of rugs and drapes to approximately the Division Chief--Deputy Division Chief level. We also discussed with him the desirability of postponing the beginning of our move until immediately after Labor Day; he approved.
